WHO CAN BE NOMINATED?

To be eligible for nomination in a Saskatchewan rural municipality, a candidate must:

- be at least 18 years old on Election Day;
- be a Canadian citizen when the nomination paper is submitted;
- not be disqualified under The Local Government Election Act, 2015 or another Act;
- have lived in Saskatchewan for at least six consecutive months immediately before submitting the nomination paper;
- live in Saskatchewan; and
- be eligible to vote in the R.M. of Gull Lake No. 139.

NOMINATION PACKAGE CHECKLIST

- ☐ Completed nomination paper and candidate acceptance
- ☐ Completed public disclosure statement
- ☐ Criminal record check in the required form (R.M. Bylaw No. 147-18)
- ☐ At least two eligible nominators: R.M. voters for Reeve, or voters of the applicable division for Councillor

VOTER ELIGIBILITY IN A RURAL MUNICIPALITY

Candidate eligibility depends in part on being eligible to vote in the R.M.

To vote in an R.M. election, a person must be a Canadian citizen, be at least 18 years old, and meet at least one of the qualifications below.

A voter must qualify as one of the following:

1. Resident	Has lived in the R.M., or on land now in the R.M., for at least three consecutive months immediately before Election Day.
2. Registered Owner	Is the registered owner of property in the R.M.
3. Assessed Person	Is assessed with respect to property situated in the R.M. under section 207 of The Municipalities Act.
4. Trailer / Mobile Home	Occupies a trailer or mobile home in the municipality that is subject to a municipal permit.
5. Spouse	Is the spouse of an eligible voter who qualifies as a resident, registered owner, or assessed person.
6. Organization CEO	Is the chief executive officer of a duly incorporated co-operative, corporation, or religious association assessed on the last revised assessment roll for non-exempt property in the R.M.

Which division do I vote in?

Where an R.M. is divided into divisions, an eligible voter votes for the Reeve and one division councillor. The division in which the person votes is determined by the first applicable voter-qualification category.
